Dear [redacted]

I am in receipt of your letter of March 15, 1947 to Special Service Section, Foreign Broadcast Intelligence Service, War Department, Washington, D. C., requesting daily reports of foreign broadcasts published during the war.

I regret to inform you that copies of these reports are not available for public consumption. These reports continue, however, to be published daily, and parts of them are distributed to interested public agencies, such as universities, libraries, press associations, etc.

If it is your desire to receive this information, it is suggested that you make your request to: Office of Collection and Dissemination, Central Intelligence Group, 2430 E Street, N. W., Washington, 25, D. C., Attn: [redacted] stating fully why you consider it necessary, or desirable, to have this information, and what use you intend to make of it.

Very truly yours,

[redacted]
Deputy Chief, FBIB
